SUPPLEMENT TO

- Jake Avsic, Yugoslavian political representative in Vienna, was replaced by Victor Repic, chairman of the Foreign Trade Committee with the Slovene Government in Laibach. No official reasons were given for the transfer of Avsic. Yugoslavs in Vienna said that he has recently been in too close contact with Graf, State Secretary in the Austrian Linistry of the Interior. He was named Minister of Forestry in Slovenia.
- 2. Mitja Vosnjak, age 27, legation councillor and newly appointed press attache with the Yugoslav political mission, comes from Pettau and was already a Communist when he attended college in Pettau in 1941. He attended the Belgrade Party School in 1947. He is a noted writer, and now contributes from Vienna a series of articles, "Dunajski zapiski", (Notes from Vienna) to a Slovene newspaper.

This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.
